About Loomstone

Loomstone is a design-led flooring solutions company specializing in bespoke carpets, rugs, and custom flooring solutions for hospitality, commercial, and luxury residential projects. Rooted in craftsmanship and driven by innovation, we seamlessly integrate design excellence, advanced manufacturing, and technical expertise to create distinctive flooring solutions that elevate interiors, enrich experiences, and deliver enduring beauty, comfort, performance, and value.

Inspired by India's rich textile heritage and shaped by contemporary design sensibilities, Loomstone transforms materials, textures, and patterns into sophisticated flooring experiences that reflect the unique character of every space.

Partnering closely with architects, interior designers, developers, and project teams, we translate design vision into thoughtfully crafted flooring solutions that balance aesthetics, functionality, and long-term performance. From luxury hospitality destinations and corporate environments to premium residential projects, our work is defined by precision, creativity, and an unwavering commitment to quality.

At Loomstone, we believe flooring is more than a surface. It is a fundamental design element that shapes experiences, enhances environments, and leaves a lasting impression.

Leadership & Vision

Experience That Shapes Excellence.

Great businesses are built on a clear vision, deep industry understanding, and an unwavering commitment to quality.

Loomstone was founded by Pawan Yadav, an experienced flooring professional with extensive expertise in bespoke carpets, custom flooring solutions, and project execution across luxury hospitality, commercial, and premium residential sectors.

Throughout his professional journey, he has worked closely with leading hospitality brands, developers, architects, consultants, and interior design professionals, gaining valuable insight into the relationship between design intent, technical performance, and project delivery.

His experience has shaped a distinctive approach to flooring — one that recognises the importance of aesthetics while addressing the practical demands of modern interior environments.

Driven by a passion for craftsmanship, design, and innovation, he established Loomstone with the vision of creating a company where creative possibilities are supported by technical knowledge, precision, and dependable execution.

Under his leadership, Loomstone continues to focus on collaborative partnerships, thoughtful design development, and solutions that bring lasting value to every project.

FOUNDER'S PHILOSOPHY

Loomstone began with a clear purpose: every home, hotel and commercial space deserves a carpet that is luxurious, durable and made with care. Inspired by the Axminster tradition of woven craftsmanship, we combine high-quality wool with resilient fibers, offer bespoke designs, and build every carpet with sustainability in mind.
